So, if you choose to rely just a little bit on law-keeping as a way of getting justified, as a way of getting into a position where God is 100 percent for you, Christ is of no advantage to you. If you go the route of justification by faith plus a little bit of law-keeping, you go the route of justification by total law-keeping.

The Words of Agur ... 8 Keep falsehood and deceitful words far from me. Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the bread that is my portion. 9 Otherwise, I may have too much and deny You, saying, 'Who is the LORD?' Or I may become poor and steal, profaning the name of my God. 10 Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will bear the guilt....

Proverbs 30:9 Otherwise, I may have too much and deny You ...

Yet God stopped storms, prompted earthquakes, halted the sun, and created the universe with the mere utterance of His voice. That makes Him pretty big, and reminds me that I'm pretty little. Faith (trust in God) and faithfulness (consistent devotion to His service) are absolutely impossible in the absence of a "big God."

Big God. Little Me. - Focus Online

Here they are in very simple form: There is BIG GOD and Little Me or there is Little God and BIG ME. When you come into the knowledge of God, you will have a Big God and a little you. But for most of us, it's the other way around. Our view of ourselves is so big that God shrinks down to a manageable size.
