The Careta Mask . The mask of the vejigante is known as the Careta. Made from either papier-mâché or coconut husks (although I've also seen plenty of masks made with gourd), it typically sports a fearsome assortment of horns, fangs, and beaks, and are often polka-dotted. Masks are hand-painted and assembled by local artisans.

1. Print the mask template (see link at bottom of post) onto white card - as thick as your printer can manage. Alternatively print onto normal paper, cut out and use this to trace onto an old cereal box or other thick but flexible card. This is really the better option, as it makes a sturdier mask, but it takes longer to prepare. 2.
